words & music by Travis Ham | ©2022

I IV I
May the work of our hands all be worship to Christ

IV vi I/V V
In success and in struggle He is all our delight

IV I/iii IV/I vi
In our homes, in the market, in our schools, on the land

IV I V I
All for Christ, we will worship through the work of our hands

May the work of our hands all be worship to Christ
Work is not our appraisal since our worth is His life
As we toil in submission, as we lead, as we plan
All for Christ, we will worship through the work of our hands

May the work of our hands all be worship to Christ
For He gave us a pattern as He labored and strived
Through the pain and rejection on the cross for our sins
Where He paid our redemption through the scars in His hands

May the work of our hands all be worship to Christ
We are not disregarded by the Maker of light
Though the world overlooks us, yet the great Son of Man
Sees and smiles at the worship through the work of our hands

May the work of our hands all be worship to Christ
When the Lamb comes in glory, lifts the curse, rules in might
We will serve without struggle in a world without end
Still for Christ, we will worship through the work of our hands

We will serve without struggle in a world without end
Still for Christ, we will worship through the work of our hands
