

The Kingdom Yet to Come (2 Samuel)

words & music by Travis Ham ©2021

A B
We're longing for the day when war and strife will cease
C#m B
When tears are swept away by Jesus, Prince of Peace
A B A
When streets, now chaos-filled resound with praise to Christ our King
B
And so we sing

E G#m
Father, fill us with the hope of the Kingdom, yet to come
C#m Amaj7
When Your Son, at last, will reign from His father David's throne
E G#m C#m
And we fully know Your love as our hearts are fully known
B A
In the Kingdom yet to come

Our hope is firm and sure. Your promise ever stands Engraved within Your Word. Engraved in Jesus' hands
Though surely we have sinned, more surely, He we crucified
Is now alive

A B
All nations will praise Him, all empires fall
E/G# C#m
The great Son of David will reign over all
A B
With new eyes we'll see Him, with new voices praise
E/G# C#m
Our joy will be Jesus in unending day
A B
So onward we labor to love and to serve
E/G# B
To bring Christ the glory He solely deserves

Intro: 1st 2 lines - sparse
drums: tom riff

V1: vox: just lead

C: open
vox: unison

V2: steady
drums: tom riff
vox: just lead
3rd line: all in

C: big vox: all in

B: build drums: tom riff + snare
vox: just lead
3rd line: all in

C: big vox: all in

C: sparse